From Our Director

Welcome to the beginning of a new year with OLLI at WVU!

The 2018-19 year promises to be an exciting one with a variety of classes, special events, and travel opportunities from which to choose. This summer, we are offering courses, a visit the WV Culture Center and Governor's Mansion, an outing to a baseball game, and four tour opportunities with Collette Travel.

For those interested in learning how to purchase or renew a membership and register online, you will now find detailed instructions on page 10. If you have been an OLLI member within the last two years, you already have an account. In most cases, your user name is the first two letters of your first name and your last name, with the initials capitalized (i.e. JaSmith). It is not an email address. If you do not remember your user name or password, you can call the OLLI office for assistance.

While the joy of learning is at the forefront of OLLI's mission, we also recognize the benefits and importance of volunteering to both the volunteer and our program. If you're interested in learning more about volunteer opportunities with OLLI, visit page 7 and then give us a call. The sharing of wisdom, expertise, and time by our members is always greatly appreciated.

We hope that you are looking forward to this new year with OLLI as much as we are. See you soon!

Jascenna Haislet
Director, OLLI at WVU

Irving Goodman Aging Lecture Series

12th Annual Lecture

After the Eclipse: Years Later, Later Years

Judith Gold Stitzel

Wednesday, September 26, 1:00 p.m.
Morgantown
Mountaineer Mall
Classroom: B

A New Yorker by birth, a West Virginian by choice since 1965, Judith Gold Stitzel is a retired professor of English and Women's Studies at West Virginia University where she was the founding director of the Center for Women's Studies.

After 46 years of marriage, Judith lost her husband Bob when he died in 2007. She spent the next year exploring the process of grieving and what it means to be "a couple." In 2011, Word Association Publishers published Field Notes From Grief: The First Year, based on Stitzel's journals kept during that time.

The author will share her journey of the past decade while reading from After the Eclipse: Years Later, Later Years, a work-in-progress based on journals she has kept over the past decade. The book explores and reveals the sometimes challenging, sometimes humorous, changes in identity that have followed her loss.

Judith is honored to be the speaker at the 2018 Irving Goodman Annual Lecture because of her deep respect for OLLI and because Irv and Sharon were the first friends she and Bob met in Morgantown – and remain dear to heart.

Lecture and discussion will be followed by a reception.

What Will Your Legacy Be?

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at WVU is dedicated to providing the highest quality educational, recreational, and social opportunities possible to our members. Last year, we offered nearly 60 lectures, discussions, field trips and workshops in Charleston in a wide variety of subject areas, from the arts and literature to retirement planning and computer training.

We are thrilled at the success of OLLI at WVU Charleston and proud to be able to offer these experiences to you. Your support as a member has enabled the marked success in Charleston. In order to continue the high quality course selection and to grow the program for you, your financial support is needed also.

Although OLLI receives support from WVU and earnings from the Osher Endowment, this funding covers only about 45% of our expenses. Membership and registration fees cover another 15%. Therefore, the remaining 40% must be raised through donations, gifts, sponsorships and grants. Your donation will help us continue to offer quality programming for OLLI at WVU Charleston.

With a variety of giving options, you can choose the gift that works best for you. For more information, visit olliatwvu.org/make-a-gift/ or call the OLLI office at 304-293-1793.

Terminologies: Let’s Talk About Them

Leslie Baker
 Wednesday, August 22, 2018 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
 Hansford Center, St. Albans

Terminologies used when discussing the LGBTQ population are changing. New words are presenting themselves and old words have revised meanings. Because words can be powerful and many have strong political and social contexts, awareness of current usage can help demystify misconceptions. This course will explore many of the current terminologies used by media and others when discussing the LGBTQ population. Several myths about the population will be described and explained as terminologies are reviewed. Application of terminologies to the LGBTQ aging population will be addressed.

About the Instructor: Leslie Bakker is retired nursing school faculty. She has taught courses and led programs about cross-cultural health care across the life span. An advocate for health and wellness, she has published a continuing education program about promoting LGBTQ health. She is an active member of PFLAG and SAGEUSA, both organizations that promote LGBTQ well-being.

Registration & Attendance Matter

We understand that plans change, especially when you're asked to commit to something several weeks in advance. However, it is important to register for the classes that you wish to attend. Enrollment records help us demonstrate our members' active participation in the program when seeking funding from grant-makers and policy-makers. Also, we occasionally have classes which fill quickly so one that you wish to attend may already have a wait list.

If you are unable to attend a class for which you are registered, please notify the OLLI office. Another person may be anxiously awaiting your cancellation so that he or she may participate in the class.

Please be respectful of the time and efforts of our volunteer instructors and your fellow OLLI members.

Weather and Holiday Policy

OLLI members are personally responsible for their own safety and must exercise good judgment when making travel choices in inclement weather. When Kanawha County Schools are closed for inclement weather, OLLI activities are cancelled. School delays do not affect OLLI activities. The decision to cancel activities is at the discretion of the Director when a county calls for early dismissal due to the weather. The decision to cancel weekend activities due to weather is at the discretion of the instructor. Registered participants will be notified. The OLLI office observes WVU holidays.
