About OLLI at WVU

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at West Virginia University, known as OLLI at WVU, provides programs and educational opportunities designed for adults 50 and over.

OLLI at WVU, a membership organization affiliated with the School of Public Health, recognizes the unique experiences, capabilities, and wisdom of mature members of the community. OLLI at WVU emphasizes the sharing of ideas through peer learning, member participation, and collaborative leadership.

During four terms each year, OLLI at WVU offers courses, lectures, seminars, and field trips in such areas as music, literature, art, science, politics, nature, history, health, medicine, and economics. Live drama, movies, and interest groups add to the choices.

Courses are developed and taught by volunteers from the community who are passionate about their topics, avocations, and interests and who love to share their ideas.

Free from the pressures of tests and grades, OLLI members are learning simply for the joy of it.

The Bernard Osher Foundation

The Bernard Osher Foundation seeks to improve quality of life through the support of lifelong learning institutes such as OLLI at WVU. The Foundation was founded in 1977 by Bernard Osher, a respected businessman and community leader. The Foundation has now funded 120 Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes on campuses of colleges and universities from Maine to Hawaii. Funding for OLLI is contingent upon membership growth goals, so membership matters. To learn more about The Bernard Osher Foundation, please visit their website at www.oshерfoundation.org.

From Our Director

Welcome to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at WVU Spring 2019 term. Whether you’ve been a member for a few years or are new to our lifelong learning program, I’m sure that you’ll find something in our spring schedule to peak your interest.

With descriptive taglines such as “Learning for the Fun of It” and “Curiosity Never Retires,” OLLI strives to inspire us to explore new topics, seek out knowledge, and remain intellectually challenged as we grow older. Lifelong learning has been shown to reduce cognitive decline and enjoy better mental health.

OLLI at WVU does more than just offer classes though. As an affiliate of the WVU School of Public Health, OLLI is uniquely situated to help address the growing concern of social isolation among older adults. Through shared interests, social events, and volunteer opportunities, we provide an environment for people to connect with one another and form new friendships.

With in-depth lectures and presentations in history, literature, and science; hands-on workshops in the arts and cooking; health and wellness classes to get you on your feet and moving; and much more, we offer over 75 opportunities annually in the Kanawha Valley for you to become a member of the OLLI family.

If you’ve never been a member of OLLI at WVU, we invite you to attend an open house or a single-session class at no charge. Simply call the OLLI office at 304-293-1793 to ask about a visitor pass. If you’re already a member, help us spread the word and invite a friend to class. Be sure to check with the office about available seating.

I look forward to seeing you in class!

Jascenna Haislet
Director, OLLI at WVU

OLLI Membership

Giving to Your OLLI

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at WVU is dedicated to providing the highest quality educational, recreational, and social opportunities possible to our members. For many years, we have been able to offer 200 or more classes, workshops, lectures, discussions, and field trips annually.

In order to sustain and grow the program, your financial support is needed. Although OLLI receives support from WVU and earnings from the Osher Endowment, this funding covers only about 50% of our expenses. Membership and registration fees cover another 25%. Therefore, the remaining 25% must be raised through donations, gifts, sponsorships, and grants.

Your donation to OLLI can help keep the lights on in the classrooms, support community outreach, provide hand-outs in a class, buy coffee for our member lounge, pay the printing and postage for course catalogs, and more.

OLLI members and friends may give during the Annual Giving Campaign, when you renew a membership or enroll for classes, or any time during the year. You may choose to set up a monthly recurring gift.

You can choose to designate your gift to OLLI’s area of greatest need, the $100K Club, the scholarship fund, or the OLLI endowment. You may choose to leave a Legacy Gift, make a Tribute Gift, or give through an IRA Charitable Rollover.

With a variety of giving options, you can choose the gift that works best for you.

For more information, call the OLLI office at 304-293-1793 or Karen Galentine (kegalentine@hsc.wvu.edu) at 304-293-1828.

To give today, visit https://give.wvu.edu/public-health-olli or add your tax-deductible donation to the enclosed class registration form.

Thank you for your continued support of lifelong learning and OLLI at WVU.
OLLI Spring Classes

Birds of Your Neighborhood
Mr. Jim Triplett & Mrs. Beverly Triplett
Tuesday, April 9, 1:00 - 2:00 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

The class will discuss birds that you may see in your neighborhood and at bird feeders. We have picked out 25 birds common to the Charleston and southern West Virginia area. We will also talk about types of seeds and other sources that will attract birds to your yard.

About the Instructors: Mr. Triplett graduated from Morris Harvey College with a BS degree in business. He is on the Board of Trustees of the Brooks Bird Club, Mrs. Beverly Triplett graduated from Morris Harvey College with a BA in biology and West Virginia University with a MA in Secondary Science Education. She is retired after 42 years of service in the Kanawha County School system.

Exploring the Passover Seder
Rabbi Joe Blair
Wednesday, April 10, 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Temple Israel

If you always wanted to know what a Passover Seder is all about, let Rabbi Joe Blair walk you through a brief look at the evolution of the origins, traditions, symbols, and history of the Seder, and see a bit of why this is considered to be Judaism’s most miraculous night by many. This class opens a series of four classes exploring the Passover Seder this spring.

About the Instructor: Rabbi Joe Blair is the spiritual leader of Temple Israel/B’nai Israel. He has taught for OLLI previously in Charleston, WV, and in Harrisburg, Staunton, and Charlottesville VA.

The World Of Passover Seder Music
Rabbi Victor Urecki
Thursday, April 11, 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
B’nai Jacob Synagogue

Seder night is not a dry ceremony of ancient chant and boring reading but a symphony of gorgeous melodies that acknowledges Jewish life down through the centuries. Explore the world of Passover songs with Rabbi Urecki and you will be singing Hebrew before you know it!

About the Instructor: Rabbi Victor Urecki has been rabbi of B’Nai Jacob Synagogue for 30 years.

West Virginia Symphony Orchestra
Maestro Lawrence Loh
Friday, April 12, 1:30 - 3:30 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

Maestro Loh will share highlights of the Bugs Bunny at the Symphony II in April, his preparations for Shostakovich and twin duo-pianists in May with the WVSO. He will also will take a look at the recently announced 2019-2020 season and share his plans for taking the WVSO to the next level!

About the Instructor: Lawrence Loh, Music Director of Symphoria (Syracuse, NY), was named Music Director of the West Virginia Symphony commencing in the 2017/2018 season. Loh had a decade-plus association with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra where he currently leads annual pops and other select programs.

Tour of Temple Israel Art
Ellie Schaul and Rabbi Joe Blair
Friday, April 12, 10:30 - 11:30 a.m.
Temple Israel

In 1959, congregation B’nai Israel moved to its new home on Kanawha Blvd. in Charleston. The congregation was passionate in bringing original art to this new home. Renowned sculptor Milton Horn had recently completed eight 15’ pylons for the entrance of West Virginia University Medical Center. Horn was invited to Charleston where he proposed a massive, hand carved, wood ark to hold the TORAH’S and the NER TAMID (eternal light). The tour will discuss the ark, the TORAH adornments, and other pieces of original art in the collection.

About the Instructors: Ellie Schaul is an artist and art advocate. Rabbi Joe Blair is the spiritual leader of Temple Israel/B’nai Israel.

Let My People Eat
Mrs. Victor Urecki
Tuesday, April 16, 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
B'nai Jacob Synagogue

Passover is a special time for the Jewish people. Join Marilyn, the wife of Rabbi Victor Urecki, for an introduction into the world of Passover dishes and customs Middle Eastern Jewish food. While most associate Passover with matzoh balls and gefilte fish, authentic Passover actually covers a wide range of cultures and societies. Join Marilyn in sampling the wide variety of unique Passover food traditions.

About the Instructor: Marilyn Urecki is the wife of Rabbi Victor Urecki of B’nai Jacob Synagogue. A graduate of Yeshiva University with a Masters in Jewish education and an English teaching degree, she has served as a high school English teacher for over a decade at Charleston Catholic High School. She runs the B’nai Jacob Sunday and Hebrew school and is well known for her cooking skills and abilities.

Why Is This Seder Different From All Other Seders?
Rabbi Joe Blair, Mrs. Marilyn Urecki, and Rabbi Victor Urecki
Wednesday, April 17, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Temple Israel

You have joined Rabbi Joe Blair for a discussion on the traditions behind the Seder. You have explored with Rabbi Victor Urecki the melodies and songs that are a part of the seder evening. Marilyn Urecki has expanded your view on Passover food. Now, put all this together and join our community’s rabbis for a unique Passover seder you will never forget: The Chocolate Seder!

About the Instructors: See above.

Retirement GBU
Mr. Justin Southern
Wednesday, April 24, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

Retirement GBU will consist of three presentations. They could be described as good, bad, and ugly. The “Financial Elder Abuse Seminar” will discuss how low some will go to scam their victims. The second presentation is what some might consider a bad or scary topic. Our discussion of “Weathering Market Volatility,” can help us prepare for financial market gyrations. Our “good” presentation brings it all together with a discussion about “Key Concepts for Generating Retirement Income.”

About the Instructor: Prior to joining Wells Fargo Advisors as a Financial Advisor in 2017, Justin led financial literacy efforts for nearly two decades as the Investor Education Coordinator for the West Virginia Securities Commission and as Communications Director for the WV State Auditor’s Office. Justin is a BA and MA graduate of WVU, and lives in Charleston with his wife and children.

The Art of Venice’s Carnevale and Italian Commedia dell’Arte
Ms. Melora Cann
Thursday, April 25, 1:00 - 2:30 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

The city of Venice, known as the Most Serene Republic of Venice, or, in Italian as La Serenissima Repubblica de Venezia, has a long and fascinating history which includes its relationship with the Christian religion. The focus of this class will be the Christian pre-Lenten celebrations in Venice as depicted in art and the history of its Carnevale costumes and masks.

About the Instructor: Melora Cann is a former art educator with a specialty in art history. She lived and taught in Vicenza, Italy (less than 50 km from Venice) for 24 years.

Chocolate Strudel
Mrs. Lynn Meyer
Wednesday, May 1, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Kitchen, WVU Extension

Many people are afraid to attempt any strudel dough because of the possible complexities. In this course you will learn how to create a cream cheese strudel dough and fill it with a delectable chocolate. Rolling strudel dough is usually a frightening task but by the time you leave with baked strudel in hand, you’ll probably be ready to go home and try to create this delicacy on your own.

About the Instructor: Although Mrs. Meyer is not a professional baker, she has been an entrepreneur in Baltimore and Charleston for the past 50 years. Coming from a family of caterers, she has spent countless years decorating cakes, baking for large events and small gatherings. Creativity is an element found in any area but it is particularly prevalent in the kitchen.
Doctor/Patient Decision Making
Dr. Dan Foster
Monday, May 6, 1:00 - 2:00 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

Medical care is something we all need or will need. The options for that care have expanded dramatically during our lifetimes, so it is now even more important that the best option be found for our needs. Communication between the patient and his or her medical provider are critical to achieving that goal. This course is designed to give advice on how to better open these lines of communication.

About the Instructor: Dan Foster is a retired surgeon who practiced for many years in Charleston.

The Book of Kells: Celtic Art and the Illuminated Manuscript
Ms. Melora Cann
Thursday, May 9, 1:00 - 2:30 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

This class will explore Insular art, and specifically Celtic art, of Ireland and Scotland in the mid- to late eighth century through examination of The Book of Kells and other contemporary sources. The Book of Kells is considered to be the world’s most famous early medieval manuscript, a 1,200-year-old copy of the Gospels, illustrated with hand-lettered and illuminated pages by monastic scribes. It was created by the Celtic monks in c. 801 A.D. and is considered the pinnacle of Insular art.

About the Instructor: See previous course.

Anyone Can Lobby
Ms. Bonnie Brown
Tuesday, May 14, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
State Capitol

Legislative decisions can affect each of us and we have the responsibility to make our voices heard in the most effective way. How the legislature works, the committee system and how to navigate will be provided with “tools of the trade,” e.g., lists, rosters, and tips.

About the Instructor: Bonnie Brown served for 22 years in the WV Legislature, representing Kanawha County, serving on most every committee during her tenure. But her political career really began as a lobbyist. She hopes to dispel the notion of dirty politics, believing the lobbyists are the “educators of the legislature.” She is the author of Anyone Can Lobby, presented statewide.

Facing the “Big Bad Wolf” Within Us
Dr. Bob Harrison
Wednesday, May 15 & 22, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Kanawha Valley Room, Schoenbaum Center

“You are invited to George and Martha’s for an evening of fun and games.” This quote was extracted from the trailer for the film version of Edward Albee’s Whose Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, directed by Mike Nichols. Halliwell’s Film, Video and DVD Guide states, “As a milestone in cinematic permissiveness, this film is very important. As entertainment, sensational for those in the mood.”

About the Instructor: Dr. Bob Harrison is a West Virginia educator with 50 years of service to the teaching profession. Edward Albee is his favorite Modern American Dramatist.

Using Your Apple iPad and iPhone
Michelle Klishis
Thursday, May 16, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Edgewood Summit

This course covers iOS 11 for the iPhone and iPad. We’ll look at features of this state-of-the-art operating system and the incredibly useful devices on which it runs. We’ll explore the basic knowledge and skills you’ll need to use your device effectively and efficiently, like the various gestures you use to control the operating system and how to find and install third party apps.

About the Instructor: Michelle Klishis is a jack-of-all-trades and certifiable geek. Her degree in biology and work in a microbiology lab gave her absolutely no preparation for becoming a technology consultant, yet here we are. When not in front of computers, she is likely found reading or hiking (current accomplishment: hiking all of the state parks and forrests in West Virginia).

Technology Security
Michelle Klishis
Thursday, May 16, 1:30 - 4:30 p.m.
Edgewood Summit

“If you are not paying for it, then YOU are the PRODUCT.” As more of our lives become digitized, it’s important to make sure you are being safe with your electronic gadgets and online information. Anti-virus, malware, hacking, identity theft: all of these things make computers and smart phones sound terrifying, but there are simple steps you can take to make your data more secure, and to feel more comfortable surfing the web and shopping online.

About the Instructor: See previous course.

Mine Wars, Parts I & II
Ed Johnson
Monday, May 20
   Part I: 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
   Part II: 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Tuesday, May 21
   Part II: 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Edgewood Summit
In the spring of 1901, when miners in West Virginia began organizing to join a union, their efforts sparked a fight that would escalate from an unremarkable skirmish between capital and labor to the largest armed insurrection since the Civil War. The PBS documentary The Mine Wars will form the basis of our discussions but will be supplemented by additional material.

Part 1 deals with the rise of the coal mine “system” and introduces us to Mother Jones and Frank Keeney, the UMWA, and the Paint and Cabin Creek Strikes.

Part 2 begins with the end of World War I, and increasing demands by the miners. The situation becomes more violent, especially in the southern regions, with Baldwin-Felts agents playing an important role. Events include the Matewan Massacre, the murder of Sid Hatfield, and the Battle of Blair Mountain.

About the Instructor: Ed Johnson is the creator and curator of MH3WV.org, a website for students and educators of West Virginia Studies.

Registration & Attendance Matter
We understand that plans change, especially when you’re asked to commit to something several weeks in advance. However, it is important to register for the classes that you wish to attend. Enrollment records help us demonstrate our members’ active participation in the program when seeking funding from grant-makers and policy-makers. Also, we occasionally have classes which fill quickly so one that you wish to attend may already have a wait list.

If you are unable to attend a class for which you are registered, please notify the OLLI office. Another person may be anxiously awaiting your cancellation so that he or she may participate in the class.

Please be respectful of the time and efforts of our volunteer instructors and your fellow OLLI members.
Share your Passion: Teach for OLLI

OLLI at WVU draws volunteers from all walks of life to teach a wide variety of courses for adults 50 and older. Many OLLI instructors are current and retired teachers, university professors and administrators, business and civic leaders, and other professionals from the community who wish to share their knowledge and passion.

Experience the joy of teaching free of tests and grades. OLLI classes are offered simply for the joy of learning. Members are enthusiastic, engaged, and eager to learn.

Volunteer for OLLI

As a non-profit membership organization, OLLI depends on the generous support of our volunteers. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our program, helping to ensure that OLLI is able to provide the highest quality courses, lectures, workshops, trips, and more for our members. Your volunteer experience can be molded to fit your interests, talents, and schedule. All members have something to offer and are encouraged to share their time and expertise with their peers.

Ambassadors
OLLI Ambassadors help spread the word about our program by sharing their experiences and inviting friends, family, and others to join them for a class.

Board Members
The Board of Directors is the governing body of OLLI at WVU, providing leadership to committees and staff. With input from the committees, the Board establishes organizational priorities and financial and program policies. Board members are elected by the membership to serve a two-year term and may be re-elected for a second term.

Class Hosts
Class hosts greet members and ask them to sign in as they arrive for a class, remind members to turn off their cell phones, introduce the instructor, assist with class needs, and distribute course feedback forms.

Instructors
Our program depends on the generosity of our volunteer instructors to teach the quality courses and learning experiences offered throughout the year. OLLI instructors, drawn from all walks of life, share their knowledge and expertise of their chosen careers, fields of study, or hobbies about which they are passionate. Free from tests or grades, instructors experience the joy of teaching students who are enthusiastic, engaged and eager to learn.

Charleston Curriculum Committee
Committee members recruit members and volunteer instructors for our program. They meet quarterly to review course proposals and plan future programming, and represent OLLI at community functions, such as health fairs and social group meetings.

How to Become a Volunteer
To become an OLLI volunteer, contact the OLLI office at 304-293-1793 or submit the Volunteer Information Form online at http://www.olliatwvu.org.
