The Bernard Osher Foundation

The Bernard Osher Foundation seeks to improve quality of life through the support of lifelong learning institutes such as OLLI at WVU. Founded in 1977 by Bernard Osher, a respected businessman and community leader, it has funded a national network of 125 Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes. Funding for OLLI is contingent upon membership growth goals, so membership matters. To learn more about the Bernard Osher Foundation, visit www.osherfoundation.org.

West Virginia University

Founded in 1867, West Virginia University is a public land-grant university and a space-grant university. WVU continues to rank at the highest level of research activity (“Doctoral Universities: Highest Research Activity” or “R1”) as reflected in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. The university is one of only 75 schools recognized by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for Engagement Classification (recognized since 2010).

WVU Mission

As a land-grant institution, the faculty, staff, and students at West Virginia University commit to creating a diverse and inclusive culture that advances education, healthcare and prosperity for all by providing access and opportunity; by advancing high-impact research; and by leading transformation in West Virginia and the world through local, state and global engagement.

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at West Virginia University (OLLI at WVU)

Dedicated to enriching the lives of older adults throughout West Virginia, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at West Virginia University (OLLI at WVU), an affiliate of the WVU School of Public Health, is a member organization whose mission is to promote connection, curiosity, exploration, discovery, and discussion through learning and social engagement in non-credit classes, lectures, field trips, and events designed for adults 50+.

History

OLLI at WVU was born out of the Appalachian Lifelong Learners (ALL), a program started in 1992 by a group in Morgantown and Monongalia County interested in establishing an ongoing, self-sustaining educational program organized, taught, and attended by older adults. In 2007, the Appalachian Lifelong Learners was renamed the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at WVU with the receipt of a $100,000 grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation. Two years later, OLLI at WVU was granted a $1 million endowment. In 2015, OLLI’s program manager and board of directors decided to launch a satellite program in Charleston, WV.

Vision Statement

OLLI at WVU is committed to being a premier community of adult learners throughout West Virginia, striving to enrich the lives of older adults by providing the highest quality lifelong learning experiences and opportunities for social engagement to our members.

We value:

- The shared knowledge and talents of our members and volunteers.
- The support of our members for OLLI at WVU.
- A spirit of collaboration and respect among OLLI members and with West Virginia University.
- Excellence in all aspects of the life of OLLI at WVU.
- Innovation, creativity, and curiosity to develop and maintain a vibrant, member-driven program.
- Respect for diverse people, ideas, voices, and perspectives where all members feel valued.
- Working together to positively impact every part of OLLI at WVU.
- Partnering with people in the communities that we serve to support the mission and vision of OLLI at WVU.

OLLI Governance

OLLI at WV is led by a volunteer Board of Directors, Board of Advisors, and the Program Director. The Boards provide volunteer leadership to OLLI at WVU and establish OLLI organization, priorities, policies, programs, and budgets, subject to University rules and the OLLI at WVU Bylaws to assure growth, enrollment and continuity of the organization.

The Board of Directors is made up of fifteen members elected to two-year terms by OLLI members at an annual business meeting. The Board of Advisors is made up of past presidents of the Board of Directors. Board members must be current OLLI members.

Board meetings are held bi-monthly on Zoom and are open to all OLLI members. Meetings are listed on OLLI's Google calendar at olliatwvu.edu. Call the OLLI office to receive the Zoom link.

As the host university of OLLI, WVU assumes the legal, financial, and liability risk of program. OLLI is, in turn, subject to rules, regulations, and policies of West Virginia University and the WVU Foundation.

Programming

During four terms each year, OLLI offers lectures, workshops, discussion groups, field trips, and social engagement opportunities in such areas as:

- arts and literature
- natural science
- philosophy and religion
- social sciences, political and current events
- history
- health and wellness
- financial literacy
- other interests
- and the challenge of aging well.

Courses are developed and taught by volunteers from the community who are passionate about their topics, avocations, and interests, and love to share their knowledge and talents.

Course Selection

Courses offered during a term are solicited and selected by OLLI's curriculum committee based on suggestions from members and proposals submitted by volunteer instructors. Members are invited to suggest a topic, course, or instructor on feedback forms distributed following the conclusion of each course and by emailing olli@hsc.wvu.edu. Members are also invited to consider teaching for OLLI. See page 14 for more information about volunteering to teach.

Although most programming is open to members only, OLLI offers several community events throughout the year that are open to the public. Information about community events can be found at <https://olliatwvu.org/about-us/community-events/>. Field trips are often open to non-members and guests for an additional fee.

Open Houses

OLLI hosts a virtual open house on Zoom and YouTube Live about two weeks prior to the start of each term. Instructors are invited to share a brief presentation about their class and answer questions. The virtual open houses are recorded and available for later viewing on OLLI's YouTube channel.

In-person open houses are also held quarterly at the Mountaineer Mall in Morgantown and the Schoenbaum Center in Charleston. Instructors are invited to be on-hand to answer questions. Attendees can register for classes at the open house and meet OLLI members, staff, and board members.

All open houses are free and open to the public. Registration is encouraged for the virtual open houses but not required for either. Dates are announced in the Friday bulletin and on social media.

Membership

As a part of the nationwide Osher Lifelong Learning Institute network, OLLI at WVU is required to maintain a membership of at least 500 individuals who have paid the annual membership fee. The membership year is defined as July 1 through June 30.

Membership is open to those interested in programming designed for individuals over the age of 50. There is no minimum age limit.

Membership benefits

- Special Interest Groups
- Technology support
- At least one free Special Member Event per term.
- The right to be added to a course wait list.
- Access to the OLLI collection of Great Courses DVDs and books.
- Discounts on travel and events in the community.
- A voice in OLLI governance.
- The opportunity to learn and to meet new friends.

Term Enrollment Fees

OLLI members pay a single flat fee to take as many classes as they wish for each quarter during which they wish to take classes. The term enrollment fee is not due if the member takes no classes during the term. Some classes and events may require additional materials and/or participation fees. These will be listed in the program description. The term enrollment fee is not required for participation in OLLI's special interest groups (SIGs). Community events, as stated above, are often free and open to the public.

Membership and Fee Increases

Per OLLI at WVU by-laws, changes in membership and term enrollment fees are recommended by the OLLI Board of Directors and voted on by current members during the annual meeting or a meeting called for the purpose of voting on the change.

Fee Waivers

Believing strongly that cost should not be a barrier to participation, OLLI offers fee waivers for membership, registration fees, and some materials/field trip fees for those in need. Waivers are awarded on an honor-basis; proof of need is not required. To help OLLI maintain the minimum required number of individually paid membership, recipients are asked to consider making a minimal contribution by paying what they can for their annual membership. To apply for a scholarship, visit <https://olliatwvu.org/learn-more/scholarships/>. For more information, contact the OLLI office at 304-293-1793. All applications are kept strictly confidential.

OLLI recognizes that plans change, especially when you’re asked to commit to something several weeks in advance. However, some OLLI classes are in great demand and will have wait lists. Others may be cancelled a few days prior if enrollment is too low. Therefore, it is important to register for the classes that you wish to attend. Enrollment records help demonstrate our members’ active participation in the program when seeking funding from grant-makers and policy-makers.

Class and Event Communications

Due to the large number of classes, events, and participants, OLLI at WVU uses email as a primary communication method. If you do not use email, please contact the OLLI office to discuss the best way to get the latest information.

Prior registration for the class is strongly recommended. Video links may be requested from the OLLI office. Recordings are shared as a courtesy benefit of OLLI membership with permission of the instructor. Please do not share the link with others.

Classroom Etiquette

Name tags and Zoom names

Please help the OLLI staff, volunteers, and fellow members remember who you are by wearing your name tag when attending classes in person and naming yourself on Zoom. If you are new to OLLI, you can pick up a name tag at the OLLI office in Morgantown or at first class in the Kanawha Valley. For assistance with name tags or Zoom names, contact the OLLI office.

Respect the learning environment

OLLI instructors are volunteering their time and talents. Please be respectful of your course instructors and fellow participants by:

- staying on topic during discussions
- being careful not to dominate a conversation
- attending only courses for which you have registered

Exposure to new and different ideas is what OLLI is all about. Participants are encouraged to embrace this philosophy and be respectful in classroom discussions.

Guests

OLLI members are the best ambassadors. Members are encouraged to share their experiences with friends and family. Members are welcome to bring a guest to an in-person single session of an OLLI class if there are seats available. Contact the OLLI office prior to the class to confirm availability and obtain a guest pass. Members are asked not to share Zoom links with non-members.

Health and COVID Protocols

To help prevent the spread of disease, OLLI at WVU strongly encourages participants to wear a mask in indoor classroom settings.

If you have symptoms of COVID, flu, or a cold, please do not come to class.

Course Feedback

The opinions of those who attend these courses and events are important to OLLI. In order to effectively record and follow up on member feedback, participants are asked to complete a feedback form following the conclusion of a class or event. The form is available online at <https://olliatwvu.org/current-members/course-feedback/> and paper copies are available in the classrooms. Information reported on feedback forms is shared anonymously with the instructor of the course and the OLLI curriculum committee.

Class Cancellations

If a class is cancelled, an email will be sent to everyone enrolled as soon as possible. Cancellations will also be posted on OLLI's Google calendar on the website and in the Friday ebulletin if time allows. If a class and event cancellations occurs within 24 hours of the scheduled start time, an announcement will also be send via text message to those who have joined OLLI's text message list.

OLLI will not hold in-person classes/events in Monongalia County or Kanawha County if schools are closed or offering remote learning for the day in the respective county. OLLI may still host classes/ events on Zoom.

Every effort will be made to reschedule a class or event that is cancelled.

Volunteering

As a non-profit membership organization, OLLI depends on the generous support of our volunteers. Volunteers are the lifeblood of the program, helping to ensure that OLLI is able to provide the highest quality courses, lectures, workshops, trips, and more for our members.

Your volunteer experience can be molded to fit your interests, talents, and schedule. All members have something to offer and are encouraged to share their time and expertise with their peers.

Volunteer opportunities include:

- Class host - Class hosts greet members and ask them to sign in as they arrive for a class, remind members to turn off their cell phones, introduce the instructor, assist with class needs, and distribute course feedback forms.
- Board or committee member - OLLI members are invited to participate in program governance and operations as board members or by serving on one of OLLI's 12 committees. For a list of committees, visit <https://olliatwvu.org/about-us/committees/>
- Office support - Volunteers help by answering phones, making copies, filing, and other light administrative duties.
- Events host or staff - Volunteers are needed to assist with shopping, set-up, and greeting visitors before, during, and after the event.
- Technical assistant - Volunteers act as hosts and assistants for Zoom and hybrid classes.

For more information about volunteering for OLLI at WVU, visit <https://olliatwvu.org/current-members/volunteer/> or call the OLLI office.

Teach for OLLI

OLLI at WVU draws volunteers from all walks of life to teach a wide variety of courses. Although many OLLI instructors are teachers, professors, or business and civic leaders, many others are community members with a desire to share their knowledge and passion with their peers.

Course proposals can be submitted online at <https://olliatwvu.org/teach-for-olli/course-proposal-form/>. Submission deadlines are generally three to six months in advance of the term in which the course will be taught.

Proposals are reviewed by the OLLI curriculum committee and the instructor will be notified of acceptance via email within three to four days of the submission deadline. If a proposal is accepted, an OLLI staff member will work with the instructor to schedule the course.

Although instructors are welcome to design their presentation as they see fit, OLLI has resources available to help create engaging presentations that are accessible to older adults.

For more information about teaching for OLLI at WVU, including Policies and Procedures, visit <https://olliatwvu.org/teach-for-olli/> or contact the OLLI office.

Course proposal form and submission deadlines are available online at <https://olliatwvu.org/teach-for-olli/course-proposal-form/> or by scanning the QR code to the right.

Non-Solicitation Policy

As a volunteer organization, OLLI at WVU greatly appreciates the generous donation of time and talent by our instructors and respects their right to academic freedom in preparing their courses. OLLI courses are intended to be learning experiences for our members, offered for the sake of expanding their horizons. Courses are not intended to be commercial or client recruiting opportunities for business products and services.

Media Release

OLLI routinely takes pictures and video during classes and events for marketing and archive purposes. Members are asked to sign a media recording/usage release, available in the OLLI office and at the end of this document. Consent can be withdrawn at any time. If you do not wish to be photographed or recorded, please let the photographer know.

Member Directory

OLLI produces a directory of OLLI members twice a year, in late September and April, as a PDF that is emailed to all current members. Printed copies are available to current members upon request. The directory is OPT-IN, meaning OLLI includes only members who ask to be included. Members are asked to respect the privacy of their fellow members and refrain sharing information with outside organizations. OLLI does not share member information with outside organizations.

Giving Back to OLLI

Although OLLI receives support from WVU and earnings from the Osher Endowment, this funding covers only about 50% of the program's operating expenses. Membership and registration fees cover another 25%. Therefore, the remaining 25% must be raised through donations, gifts, sponsorships, and grants.

Opportunities for giving are available throughout the year, including with quarterly registration, the annual fall fundraising campaign, and WVU Day of Giving.

OLLI Funds

- Become a Member of the $100K Club! - 100% of all donations are deposited in the OLLI $100K Club fund established at the WVU Foundation and are accessible for the immediate and long-term benefit of OLLI at WVU.
- The OLLI General Fund - used for current expenses.
- The OLLI Scholarship Fund - pays membership dues for a qualifying individual to receive OLLI membership at reduced or no cost.
- The OLLI Endowment Fund - helps to assure the continuance of the organization. OLLI can use only a percentage of the income generated from this fund.
- The WVU Campus Club Endowed Scholarship - awarded annually to a WVU student in need from West Virginia. The scholarship is funded by donations from members and friends of WVU Campus Club.

Ways to Give

- Become a Sustaining Donor – A monthly gift to OLLI's general fund provides a convenient way to give, while providing a reliable source of income for OLLI. Your gift can be automatically deducted from your bank account or charged to your credit or debit card monthly. You can adjust your gift amount at any time you wish.
- Planned Giving - A future gift made through your estate plans can also support OLLI.
- In Honor/In Memory - A gift in honor or in memory of a loved one can be a special way to remember that person and help OLLI too.
- Stocks and Bonds - A gift of stocks or bonds allows you to donate appreciated assets and avoid the tax on the capital gain.

To make a gift or learn more about giving options, visit <https://olliatwvu.org/make-a-gift/> or call the OLLI office.

Kroger Rewards Program

OLLI participates in the Kroger Community Rewards Program, an easy way to support OLLI while grocery shopping. If you have not already chosen an organization to support through Kroger, please consider OLLI at WVU. Simply register your Kroger Plus Shopper's Card online at <https://www.kroger.com/i/community/community-rewards> and choose Osher Lifelong Learning /WVU Found (FG916) as the organization to receive a donation.

Collette Travel

OLLI suggests three or four national and international trips each year through Collette Travel for our members and friends. One does not need to be an OLLI member to travel. In exchange for advertising these trips, OLLI receives a 10% commission from Collette. Commission is offered for other Collette trips as well. For more information, contact the OLLI office.
